THE HORSES AT MEMPHIS.

DAILY RACING FORM'S occasional correspondent at Memphis sends up the following interesting items of gossip about the horses now at Montgomery Park being prepared for the fast nearing campaign of 1898:

MEMPHIS, TENN., March, 1.—"Of the 675 stalls at Montgomery Park, over 450 of them are occupied, and that, too, seven weeks in advance of the meeting, an unprecedented record in the history of racing in this city; and the quality is in keeping with the numbers. This is shown by a glance at the names of the owners who are here. C. T. Patterson, T. P. Hayes, J. W. Schorr & Son, E. S. Gardner & Son, W. H. Laudemann, W. L. & R. K. Lewis, Senator J. S. O'Brien, J. C. Cahn, A. Cahn, W. W. Darden, T. J. McHale, W. M. Wallace, E. F. Simms, George C. Bennett, C. Creveling, T. Hurns, Stanton & Tucker, H. H. Stover, C. L. Applegate, Sam Oppenheimer, J. B. Gray, William Hayes, Timmons & Marks, Thomes E. Barrett, J. H. Payne, A. M. Orpen, V. D. Bond and portions of other stables are at the park.

'Other owners who have applied for accon dations are: William McGuigan, E. C. Headley, with six belonging to E. Corrigan and several of his own; W. D. Sippy and others from Little Rock, P. Dunne and E. F. McLean from Louisville and A. G. Blakely, Timmons & Marks (California division), L. Ezell, J. M. Murphy, T. Ryan and possibly others will come from the Pacific coast; John Brenock from Chicago and S. S. Brown from Mobile, Ala. Nashville will S. S. Brown from Mobile, Ala. Nashville will send a delegation headed by John C. Ferriss, Jr., and it is a question as to how many will want stable room from there, while from New Orleans will come J. J. McCafferty, P. Tomlinson & Co., W. T. Woodard Jr., T. H. Magee, C. DeWitt, W. A. Porter, H. Riddle, J. H. McAvoy & Co., R. Rome, W. C. Fessenden and numbers have applied for room who have no stake on have applied for room who have no stake en-tries. Secretary Macfarlan is in a quandary as to where to put them all.

J. W. Schorr & Son will send Presbyterian, and Bob Tucker Isabey to New Orleans to race for the Crescent City Derby. Stanton & Tucker's good son of Strathmore—Belle of the Highlands has shown a great improvement in the last six weeks, and a recent trial convinced Mr. Tucker that the colt has a chance with the best of them McGuigan says Isabey will be the horse Ban-nockburn will have to beat in the Tennessee McGuigan also says that Presbyterian s the best three-year-old in the Schorr stable.

Macy, Algol, Presbyterian, Sligo II, Sea Robber and five or six two-year-olds will form the eastern division of the J. W. Schorr & Son's racing stable. Meadowthorpe will fill his engagements in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps, but will be raced principally in the west. The part of the stable which will be raced around New York, will be shipped there directly after the close of this meeting.

The two-year-olds which have wintered here are a promising lot of youngsters, and a fast trial daily sets the trainers talking. W Laudemann's Tennessee Derby candidate Goodrich, ch. c, 3, by Patron-Edith Gray, is going along well. Albert Franklin, son of "Buck" Franklin, Baker & Gentry's trainer, is handling the Laudemann stable of nine, with Frank Thompson and Ramiro as the bright particular Will Wallace (15) and T. Hurns (12) are among the latest arrivals.

Pat Dunne will remain at Louisville with his string until the early part of April. Salvable is receiving a special "prep" for the Montgomery Handicap. Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, Ornament is a highly probable starter in the same race. He has not been declared, and Charley Patterson told your correspondent, I for this year just before leaving for New Orleans, that his horse would start if he was ready. He has horse would start if he was ready. He has breezed a quarter in 23\frac{1}{2} and a half in 51 seconds swinging. He is as hard as a rock right nov

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At least one shrewd horseman has discovered that Bermuda is an ideal place to develop thoroughbreds during the winter. This is J. W. M. Skinner, who has a stable of yearlings there which he purchased in this country. They include two youngsters of much promise—Wilgosskin, b. c., by G. W. Johnson—Fanny Eslin, and Wibblisk, blk. or gr. f, by Fordham—Helen Broeck. The former is a beauty and grandly bred. His dam is by Sir Modred—La Scala, and therefore a half-sister to Sir Walter. Helen Broeck, the dam of Wibblisk, is by Ten Broeck, and the filly is a cousin in blood to Traverser. the noted three-year-old now racing with much success at San Francisco.—New York Sun.

The weights for the Washington Handicap to be run at Bennings track April 23 are as follows: Buddha, 126 lbs.; Ben Eder, 124; Premier, 121; Strathmeath, 117; Billali, 117; Lobengula, 116; Bannock, 115; Blue Devil, 113; Ben Ronald, Manassas, Thomas Cat, 113 each; Knight of the Garter, 108; Belchax, 108; Demagogue, Klepper, Varus, 107 each; Sly Fox, 104; Sensational, 102; Sailor King, 102; Floral Park, Don't Care, Handpress, Ruskin, 100 each; Alice Farley, 98; King Bermuda, Passover, 97 each; Snapshot, Aurum, President Thomas H. Williams after looking over the ground carefully has announced that he will give three, if not four, weeks racing at Los Angeles in June to follow closely after the Sacramento meeting. It is claimed that fully 600 horses fit for racing will be left in San Francisco after the eastern stables have departed, a sufficient number to insure good sport for the cities composing the newly formed summer circuit.

The 4-year-old colt F. F. V. by Audrain-Tara Blackburn, sold at the Splan-Newgass sale last week, was bought for E. F. Simms and will soon be placed in training at Memphis. F. F. V. is a good colt. He has not started since run ning second to Ornament in last year's Latonia Derby because of a threatened breakdown, but he is now thought to be sound and fit for train ing and racing.

It was thought that with a string of forty es Bromley & Co. would have the larges stable in training this year, but there is still a larger string. James E. Seagram, the well known Canadian turfman, has fifty horses in training, which is probably the largest number that has ever been in one stable on this side of the Atlantic.

David II, by Tenny-Quesal, continues to receive strong support for the Lincolnshire Han-Several important commissions are reported at the betting clubs as having placed about him in the last day or two. now quoted equal favorite with Prince Barcaldine at 100 to 7

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary Jockey Simms announced on his return to New York Monday that his riding engagements were the same as last year's. He will begin his work this year by riding M. F. Dwyer's horses at the Washington meeting in April.

George C. Bennett has engaged E. Jones to do is riding this year. "Eddie" is not the best his riding this year. "Eddie" is not the best jockey in the country by any means but there are not many who can outride him at that.

Mr. Hendrie of the Parmer-Hendrie racing syndicate says the recent sale of the Fort Erie race track will not annul the syndicate's lease

The former owner of May W. has offered $1,500 for the sire of the mare Eagle's Plume, who is by Scottish Chief—Decoration, by Knight of the Garter, second dam, Toison, d'Or, by Buccaneer, third dam, Auld Acquaintance, by Irish Birdcatcher.

Michael F. Dwyer is now in Florida taking rest prior to the coming racing season. He is said to have been a heavy loser during a flying visit to the New Orleans meeting. His reported bad health was a canard.

It is reported that the ninety days of racing to take place over the St. Louis Fair Grounds track this year will be divided into two meetings of forty-five days each with a month or so between the two Starter Dick Dwyer is keenly in demand. Memphis wanted him for the spring meeting. St. Louis, too, would like to have the skilful and rotund ex-jockey.

Turfmen who visit Chicago can be sure of good attention at the Boston Oyster House. Its service and cuisine are high of class in every department.

Barney Schreiber has left Schiller in the Brooklyn Handicap. The colt was not among the February declarations.

The services of Mr. Fitzgerald being no longer available Kit Chinn has been engaged to do the starting at Memphis.

J. E. Cushing's filly Miss Hoy died recently.

NABOB'S GOOD RACE.

Though Nabob was not even placed in his cace at New Orleans he showed that he was easily the best of the horses that started. A New Orleans special says of the colt's perform

"Bennington & Gardner's Crescent City Derby candidate made his first appearance at the meeting in this race, and his performance was the most impressive of the afternoon. Just as the barrier went up Ben Frost cut him off and Sullivan was obliged to pull up. By the time he got on his stride again he was apparently hopelessly out of the race, being fifteen or twenty lengths behind the leader. From the three-eighths pole, though, he came the three-eighths pole, though, he came like a shot and finished right on top of Globe II and Tabouret, being beaten only a neck for third place. The race was run in 1:16t, but Nabob was timed separately for the distance in 1:15t. His owners were particularly elated over the fact that he came out of the race sound, as the horse has until recently been troubled with a bad knee, ever since the Nashville meet-ing. Newton Bennington, one of his owners, is ing. Newton Bennington, one of his owners, is confident that if his colt goes to the post for the local derby sound he will win the rich event. John W. Schorr evidently thinks the son of the post of the race in which Florist a dangerous horse in the race in which either Lieber Karl or Presbyterian will bear his colors, for before leaving here he offered Bennington & Gardner $3,000 for their colt, presum ably to get him out of the way."

Winner—B. f. by Little Minch—Alarming.
Start fair. The first four were driving hard. Alarm was off well, lucky and had a world of speed. She was well ridden and fit too. but is but a sprinter. Aprona was lucky and closed strong. Entrata ran above his notch. Had clear sailing. Is a sprinter. Octuruck was best. From a bad beginning he ran a more than good race. The colt will do best at a distance and is keenly ready. Idomeneus and Prince ran to the mark. Nihau was vilely ridden. She is ready. Soft going will suit her best. Descrette is worth consideration. Levy was badly handled. Hertha's forte is soft mud. Mainbar is of no present account.

Start good. Lincoln was the best, but was ridden out. Mann's runaway at post in his last race evidently hurt him. He was used too much against Argentina. Lincoln was best ridden and is as fit as he can be made. Argentina ran above the notch. She was overweighted and hurried into submission. Mann should be tabbed. This race will fit him.
